Frequently Asked Questions

1. Can grandparents, siblings, helpers or other relatives be appointed as SAR?

No. Only a parent or legal guardian of the student athlete can be appointed as the SAR.

2. Can schools send an SAR for a team sport or event at the SPSSC NSG?

No. For all team sports or events, schools must send a school staff to be the Team Manager.

3. What happens when an appointed SAR is not able to be present for duty or needs to leave before the end of a competition?

The SAR should follow the school's current standard operating procedure for managing such situations and contact the school immediately to arrange for a replacement. An appropriate replacement should be provided by the participating school.

4. If the SAR needs to accompany his/her child to the hospital before the end of the competition, what are the standard procedures?

Please refer to Q6.

5. If any of the parent chaperones does not turn up or needs to leave before the competition ends, what are the standard procedures?

The SAR should call the School Coordinator to seek advice and assistance. The student whose parent is absent, may not be allowed to compete.

6. Is there a different set of Baseline Safety Standards (BSS) School Acknowledgement Form for schools represented by SAR?

The same form will be used. The School Coordinator should brief the SAR on the requirements and implications of the BSS Acknowledgement Form. SAR should also be familiar with the respective sports safety requirements and practices and is encouraged to be trained in first aid.
